Mr. PAUL changed his vote from "present" to "nay."

So the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE HONORABLE MICHAEL P. FORBES, MEMBER OF CONGRESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Honorable MICHAEL P. FORBES, Member of Congress:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Washington, DC, July 23, 1998.

Hon. NEWT GINGRICH,
Marietta, GA,

DEAR MR. SPEAKER: This is to formally notify you pursuant to Rule L (50) of the Rules of the House that I have been served with a subpoena issued by the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York.

After consultation with the General Counsel, I will make the determinations required by Rule L.

Sincerely,

MICHAEL P. FORBES,
Member of Congress.

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

(Mrs. KENNELLY of Connecticut asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mrs. KENNELLY of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, I ask for this time to inquire of the gentleman from California (Mr. THOMAS) about next week's schedule.

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. Speaker, will the gentlewoman yield?

Mrs. KENNELLY of Connecticut. I yield to the gentleman from California.

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to announce that we have concluded legislative business for this week. The House will next meet on Monday, July 27, at 10:30 a.m. for morning hour, and at 12 noon for legislative business. We do not expect any recorded votes before 5 p.m.

On Monday, July 27, we will consider a number of bills under suspension of the rules, a list of which will be distributed to Members' offices this afternoon.

After suspensions, Mr. Speaker, the House will continue consideration of H.R. 2183, the Bipartisan Campaign Integrity Act of 1997. We hope to, as we did last Monday, make extensive progress on the Shays-Meehan amendment in the nature of a substitute on Monday, and we also hope to return to campaign finance again at some point during the week.

On Tuesday, July 28, and the balance of the week, the House will consider the following legislation: H.R. 629, the Texas Low-Level Radioactive Waste Conference Report. We will finish H.R. 4194, the Veterans Administration, HUD and Independent Agencies Appropriations; H.R. 4276, Commerce, Justice Appropriations Act; the Transportation Appropriations Act; H.J. Res. 120, a Vietnam Trade Resolution; and House Resolution 507, a Resolution Providing Special Investigative Authority for the Committee on Education and the Workforce.

Mr. Speaker, Members should be prepared to work late next week on these appropriation bills. If we can do that, we hope to conclude legislative business for the week by 2 p.m. on Friday, July 31.

Mrs. KENNELLY of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, I wish to further ask of the gentleman, we have heard in some places that there might not be votes until after 7 o'clock on Monday. Is there any truth to that?

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. Speaker, I believe if Members are not participating in the legislation, they should have a relatively high comfort level that there would be no votes on Monday prior to 7 p.m.

Mrs. KENNELLY of Connecticut. I thank the gentleman very much. How late does the gentleman expect the last vote to be on Monday?

Mr. THOMAS. As we did last Monday night, we are hopeful, under the unanimous consent agreement on Shays-Meehan, that we could go as late as possible, to cover as many amendments as possible, so that the rest of the week would have enough time to move to a conclusion. It will be a decision made by the participants.

As the gentlewoman knows, they went very late last Monday. Our goal would be to go as late as we could, to cover as many of the amendments as we could, on Monday night, but it would be achieved under some mutual agreement.

Obviously, if they go extremely late, Members would expect that any votes that would be ordered would be rolled.

Mrs. KENNELLY of Connecticut. Is it still the intention of the leadership on the majority side to finish the Shays-Meehan bill by the August recess?

Mr. THOMAS. I would tell the gentlewoman that is why we are going to take a major chunk of time on Monday and, as I stated, reserve another piece of time, so that, in fact, the leadership's commitment that the Shays-Meehan amendment be concluded prior to the House's August break, that is our goal, that is our commitment, and we will meet it.

Mrs. KENNELLY of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman very much.

Mr. SKAGGS. Mr. Speaker, will the gentlewoman yield?

Mrs. KENNELLY of Connecticut. I yield to the gentleman from Colorado.

Mr. SKAGGS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman for yielding to me. I wanted to use this opportunity to advise colleagues of a social event for this body that will occur next Tuesday evening from 6 to 8 p.m. in the Cannon Caucus Room. It is our more or less regular summer House picnic for both Members and spouses and children.

So I hope since we will be in the middle of some appropriations work on Tuesday, it will be a nice opportunity to get together on a bipartisan basis, get to know our colleagues and our families a little bit. Conveniently located over in the Cannon Caucus Room, very reasonably priced.

Members may contact either my office or the office of the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. LAHOOD) or the Members and Family Room to make reservations.

Mrs. KENNELLY of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, reclaiming my time, I was asking about final passage on campaign finance reform, and the gentleman from California (Mr. THOMAS)
